

NOTICE

The Democratic primaries for the several wards of the city of Wichita will be held on Saturday, August 2nd, 1884, at 3 o'clock p. m. sharp, at the following places:

First Ward—At the city offices.

Second Ward—Childs & Oaks store on Main Street.

Third Ward—E. G. Smith's carpenter shop—Corner Main and Third Streets.

O. D. Kinn, Sec'y.

N. A. English, Chairman Co. Cen. Com.

Get ready for the circus, which will be here on the 12th.

Several Ohio parties are in the city looking up a location.

The divorce case of Bush vs. Bush is now on trial in the district court.

Several parties in and about the city complain a great deal about peach thieves.

A handsome new sign was yesterday put up in front of S. B. Hagan & Son's grocery store.

Fritz Sautler and a lot of other small boys had a fine time yesterday in viewing the show pictures.

The numerous divorce cases in the district court are now dragging their nasty lengths slowly along.

The Democratic primaries will be held in the several wards of the city Saturday next. See call in another column.

The addition to Mr. Getto's building, on the corner of Douglas avenue and Main street, will soon be completed.

Chas. Sautler has received the contract to furnish the circus that will be here on the 12th, with 250 pounds of meat per day.

The past month has been a very good one in the police court. Judge Gilman having collected in fines and costs $569.55.

Zack Massey, one of Sedgewick City's liveliest merchants, was in the city yesterday sizing up the markets and seeing the sights.

John Peter received twelve votes among the teachers attending the institute yesterday, but every one was the ballot of a woman.

A lot of iron cornice for a new business block at Belle Plaine, was yesterday shipped to that place by Mr. J. Bissanz of this city.

The city was billed yesterday for the great Anglo-American Circus and Menagerie, which will exhibit here on the 12th inst.

There are a large number of transient people in the city at the present time, and our hotels are crowded to their fullest capacity.

There were three cases before his Honor Judge Gilman yesterday—a plain drunk, a disorderly, and an assault case. At the conclusion of the trials the city was $15 ahead.

The divorce case of John Thilman vs. Sarah A. Thilman, was concluded in the district court yesterday, the court granting a divorce to Mrs. Thilman, but gave her no alimony.

The following figures will show the receipts and disbursements at the county treasurer's office up to the hour of closing business yesterday: Receipts, $278.75; Disbursements, $308.27.

The business in the register of deeds' office for the month ending yesterday, was the lightest for any month since last October, and yet the boys managed to record 444 deeds and 258 chattel mortgages.

The funeral of Miss Ella Barnes took place yesterday morning from the residence of her parents, on Mosley avenue. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large and sorrowful number of friends and acquaintances.

A very delightful party was given Thursday evening at the residence of Dr. McCoy in honor of their Ft. Scott guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hopkins. A number of intimate friends were present, and the evening was passed very pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy being among the most hospitable of entertainers.

The total receipts of the ice cream festival given at the W. C. T. U. rooms, Wednesday evening, were $28.75, leaving a net of $22. In addition to our report of the festival in yesterday's EAGLE, we are informed that quite late in the evening Mrs. Bailey recited a second poem, entitled "Only a Girl," which was very fine, as was also the singing by Mrs. Abbott.

The Young Men's Republican club will speak for itself. In no event will its membership call upon any Democrat, dunc or mangy pup to define their principles. The club will plant itself squarely on the national Republican platform which means honesty, virtue and good government and they will be heard from "and don't you forget it."

The case of T. M. Lane vs. D. J. Tanguy was called in Justice Thomas' court yesterday, but owing to the absence of a material witness the trial was continued until 5 o'clock this morning. The defendant is charged with threatening the life of the plaintiff, who brings suit to have him (Lanney) placed under bonds to keep the peace.

The trotting race to take place at Carey's park this afternoon at 2 o'clock, promises to be very interesting, and it will doubtless be attended by a full delegation of horsemen. It will be the last three in five for a purse of $150, the horse to take the whole purse. The animals that will contest are Standard Bearer, Light Bird and Banner Boy. These are all pretty fleet nags, and the race will be worth seeing.

People who have noticed the eloquent countenances and downcast eyes of Yank Owen, Koss Hays, and L. D. Skinner, of the Kansas State Bank, must remember that at the present time they are resting under a very black cloud, and the moral portion of the community should suspend judgment until the investigations in a certain divorce suit are completed, when it is believed these gentlemen will again stand forth in their original maiden purity.

At a social dance given at Major Davis' home, between the two rivers, last Wednesday night, some young blood from this city thought to impose upon the party, and so took to the hops a member of the demit monde from this place. As soon as the Major found it out he raised a regular "cyclone," and the aforesaid parties last night in finding their way back to the city. The dance then progressed and proved very enjoyable to all present.

It is not all of life to live nor all of death to die—or words to that effect. But it is decidedly hard to be waited upon by a comely and handsome school marm who insists on taking you to a lawn party and you have to say no. That's what ailed the writer last evening, and by the eternal hills, the next young lady that pleads for her next morning is going to get it, if all the newspapers in the country have to suspend issue next morning.

Oscar Smith, who has rooms at the Tremont hotel, had a bad time Thursday night that wasn't down on the bill of fare. Smith felt something tickling him in the region of the short-belt, and woke up instantly and jumped out of bed, but his visitor said with him, and the more he shook it off the tighter it held on. For a moment he thought he was being devoured by a tarantula, but it proved to be an innocent little bat that had taken lodgment up his shirt sleeve. Smith now thinks he knows how to sympathize with a mouse when a woman gets after it.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

Yesterday morning, by previous arrangement, the institute met at a political body, all caucusing being done the day before. There was no attempt at anything in organizing and getting the delegates seated. The delegates from each state selected a chairman, or chairman that gave the vote of the delegates. The unit rule was not adopted. We had delegates from fifteen different states and one from Canada; she was immediately naturalized by the Illinois delegation. Mr. Halleck, president, and Mr. Jay, secretary. Below you will find a statement of the votes by states:

State in which delegates were born.	Illinois	Michigan	Minnesota	Missouri	Nebraska	North Dakota	South Dakota	Wisconsin	Total
Illinois	1								1
Michigan		1							1
Minnesota			1						1
Missouri				1					1
Nebraska					1				1
North Dakota						1			1
South Dakota							1		1
Wisconsin								1	1
Canada									1
Total	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	8

I do not know as to whether that is a fair index of the politics of the state of Kansas or not, but it shows how the members of the institute stand politically. Everything passed off quietly and quickly, although Ada and Ross came near being seriously injured by trying to go down stairs in such a hurry. I have not found out the extent of their injuries or how many stars they managed to cross in one step or what effect it had on them stopping so suddenly. Girls, you have your sympathy. After order was restored the class in physiology was visited. They had the heart for their subject. The circulation of the blood had to be considered in connection with the heart. Miss Gibson gave a description of the heart. Mr. Toss and others gave their ideas of the construction, generally agreeing, but when the question of the circulation of the blood came up it was harder to dispose of, and a little more light was needed, the subject being postponed until today.

In arithmetic the multiplication and division of fractions as well as compound numbers were discussed. Miss Cummings gave us her mode of explaining division by inverting the divisor. Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Friend, Miss Weaver and others gave their ideas of learning the tables, whether it is advisable to require pupils to commit the tables to memory. Some would not. One person advised leaving out the tables and problems under some of the tables, such as cloth measure, fluid measure and English money. The plan is good and sensible.

In grammar the improper use of the verb, Run, lay, see, do, lie, sit and set, lie and lay were compared and discussed as to how to use when to use these different words. That is grammar and all there is to it, and by making the work practical we can teach grammar.

School organization was the topic today. Recreation was talked upon for a while. Mr. Graham advocated four recesses each day, but he has no takers. The control of children on the play ground was next brought out as to how far our control goes, and what we should do under the circumstances.

Reading by Mrs. Saunde, Mr. Fear and Mr. Hammond was very well done, but not so well but that there was a chance for criticism and some of it was needed. It is getting to be the opinion of those capable of judging that there is too much style and affectation about this reading. There are a great many rules laid down, but very few can follow them in our public schools, as most teachers as well as parents want to do things in their own way. The control of children on the play ground was next brought out as to how far our control goes, and what we should do under the circumstances.

Reading by Mrs. Saunde, Mr. Fear and Mr. Hammond was very well done, but not so well but that there was a chance for criticism and some of it was needed. It is getting to be the opinion of those capable of judging that there is too much style and affectation about this reading. There are a great many rules laid down, but very few can follow them in our public schools, as most teachers as well as parents want to do things in their own way.
